City of Madeira Beach Listening Tour Will Feature Website Discussion

MADEIRA BEACH, FL – The next City of Madeira Beach Community Listening Tour session, hosted by Commissioner Debi Weinstein, will be held 6 – 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, Sept. 19, 2018 at City of Madeira Beach City Hall, 300 Municipal Drive, Madeira Beach. The topic will be the new City of Madeira Beach website.

Why does the City need a new website? What information goes on the front page? What makes a government website a daily destination for locals? These questions and more will be discussed at the public event. City staff will review the results of the online survey that sought feedback from the community on what they would like to see in the City's new website. The presentation of the survey results will be followed by a question and answer session.

Executive Assistant to the City Manager Lacy Lafave and Public Information Officer Curt Preisser, will answer questions about the website design process and talk about the City Manager's vision for the City's new digital front door. "We are constantly gathering information from the City of Madeira Beach citizenry and beyond in our effort to build a website that delivers what people want in a way that they are most comfortable with," said Evans. "The response we got from the online survey was great, but there really is no substitute to having conversations with people, so we are really looking forward to the event."

For more information contact Curt Preisser, City of Madeira Beach Public Information Officer at 727-391-9951 x299 or cpreisser@madeirabeachfl.gov.
